H. Findings Regarding Use of Cash Collateral.

(i) Good and sufficient cause has been shown for the entry of this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order and for authorization of the Debtors to use the Prepetition UST Collateral (including UST Cash Collateral).

(ii) The Debtors have demonstrated an immediate and critical need to use the UST Cash Collateral in order to fund the Chapter 11 Cases and maximize the value of their estates through an orderly winddown process of their businesses and a comprehensive sale process for their assets. Without the ability of the Debtors to obtain sufficient liquidity through the use of UST Cash Collateral, as set forth in this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order, the Debtors, their estates, and parties-in-interest would be immediately and irreparably harmed. Accordingly the Debtors have an immediate need to use UST Cash Collateral as set forth in this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order to, among other things, maximize the value of the assets of the Debtors' estates to maximize the recovery to all creditors of the estates.

(iii) Based on the Motion, the First Day Declaration, the Kaldenberg Declaration, the Whittman Declaration, and the record and argument presented to the Court at the Interim Hearing, the terms of the UST Adequate Protection (as defined below) granted to the Prepetition UST Secured Parties and the terms on which the Debtors may continue to use

Prepetition UST Collateral (including UST Cash Collateral) pursuant to this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order are consistent with the Bankruptcy Code, including section 506(b) thereof, are fair and reasonable, and reflect the Debtors' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties under the circumstances.

(iv) This Interim UST Cash Collateral Order, the UST Adequate Protection (as defined below), and the use of the Prepetition UST Collateral (including UST Cash Collateral) have been negotiated in good faith and at arm's length among the Debtors, the Prepetition UST Secured Parties, the DIP Secured Parties, and the Prepetition Secured Parties (each of whom acted in good faith in negotiating the foregoing). The financial accommodations extended by the Prepetition UST Secured Parties to the Debtors under, in respect of, or in connection with, the Debtors' use of the Prepetition UST Collateral (including the UST Adequate Protection Liens (as defined below) and other UST Adequate Protection provided herein) shall be deemed to have been extended by the Prepetition UST Secured Parties in good faith, and such Prepetition UST Secured Parties (and their respective successors and assigns) shall be entitled to the full protections of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order or any provision hereof is vacated, reversed or modified, on appeal or otherwise.

(v) The Prepetition UST Secured Parties have acted in good faith and without negligence, misconduct, or violation of public policy or law, in respect of all actions taken by them in connection with or related in any way to negotiating, implementing, documenting, or obtaining requisite approvals of this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order, the Interim DIP Order, and the use of UST Cash Collateral, any challenges or objections to the use of UST Cash Collateral, and all other documents related to and all transactions contemplated by the foregoing. Accordingly, without limitation to any other right to indemnification, the Prepetition UST Secured Parties shall be and hereby are indemnified (as applicable) as provided in the Prepetition UST Loan Documents.

(vi) The Prepetition UST Secured Parties are entitled to the UST Adequate Protection (as defined below) as and to the extent set forth herein pursuant to sections 361, 362, and 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. Based on the Motion and on the record presented to the Court, the terms of the proposed UST Adequate Protection are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtors' prudent exercise of business judgment, and constitute reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration for the use of Prepetition UST Collateral, including UST Cash Collateral.

(vii) To the extent that their consent is required, the Prepetition UST Secured Parties have consented or are deemed to have consented to the Debtors' use of Prepetition UST Collateral, including UST Cash Collateral, on the terms set forth in this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order; provided, that, nothing in this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order, the Interim DIP Order, or the DIP Documents shall (x) be construed as the affirmative consent by the Prepetition UST Secured Parties for the use of Prepetition UST Collateral and UST Cash Collateral other than on the terms set forth in this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order, (y) be construed as a consent by the Prepetition UST Secured Parties to the terms of any financing or lien encumbering Prepetition UST Collateral (whether senior or junior) other than as contemplated by this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order or the Interim DIP Order, or (z) prejudice, limit, or otherwise impair the rights of the Prepetition UST Secured Parties to seek new, different, or additional adequate protection or to assert any other available right under law, and the rights of the Prepetition UST Secured Parties are hereby preserved subject to the terms and conditions of the Prepetition Intercreditor Agreement.

(viii) Subject to review and approval from, among others, the Prepetition UST Secured Parties, the Debtors have prepared and delivered to the advisors to the Prepetition UST Secured Parties the Initial DIP Budget (as defined in the Interim DIP Order). The Initial DIP Budget reflects, among other things, the Debtors' anticipated operating receipts, operating disbursements, non-operating disbursements, net operating cash flow, and liquidity for each calendar week covered thereby. Subject to the review of, and approval from, among others, the Prepetition UST Secured Parties, the Initial DIP Budget may be modified, amended, extended, and updated from time to time in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement, the Interim DIP Order, and this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order. Each subsequent budget, once approved in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement, the Interim DIP Order, and this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order, shall modify, replace, supplement or supersede, as applicable, the Initial DIP Budget for the periods covered thereby (the Initial DIP Budget and each subsequent approved budget (as approved in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement, the Interim DIP Order, and this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order, an "Approved Budget"). For the avoidance of doubt, the procedures by which each Approved Budget is reviewed and approved shall remain consistent with the terms of the review and approval process provided for in this Interim UST Cash Collateral and the Interim DIP Order even after such time as the DIP Obligations are paid and satisfied in full if the UST Adequate Protection Obligations have not been paid and satisfied in full, but the review and approval process will only require the approval of the Prepetition UST Secured Parties (with the consultation rights of the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties as set forth in the Interim DIP Order remaining in effect to the extent the Prepetition ABL Obligations have not been paid and satisfied in full) if the DIP Obligations have been paid and satisfied in full.

(ix) Each of the Prepetition UST Secured Parties shall be entitled to all of the rights and benefits of section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and the “equities of the case” exception under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code shall not apply to the Prepetition UST Secured Parties with respect to proceeds, product, offspring, or profits of any of the Prepetition UST Collateral.

I. Immediate Entry. Sufficient cause exists for immediate entry of this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 4001(b)(2) and (c)(2). Absent the ability of the Debtors to use UST Cash Collateral, the Debtors’ estates will be immediately and irreparably harmed. Continued use of Prepetition UST Collateral (including UST Cash Collateral), in accordance with this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order and the Approved Budget, are therefore in the best interests of the Debtors’ estates and consistent with the Debtors’ exercise of their fiduciary duties. The Motion and this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order comply with the requirements of Bankruptcy Local Rule 4001-2.

J. Prepetition Permitted Senior Liens; Continuation of Prepetition Liens. Nothing herein constitutes a finding or ruling by this Court that any alleged Prepetition Permitted Senior Lien is valid, senior, enforceable, prior, perfected, or non-avoidable. Moreover, nothing herein shall prejudice the rights of any party-in-interest, including, but not limited to, the Debtors or the Prepetition UST Secured Parties, to challenge the validity, priority, enforceability, seniority, avoidability, perfection, or extent of any alleged Prepetition Permitted Senior Lien. For the avoidance of doubt, the right of a seller of goods to reclaim goods under section 546(c) of the Bankruptcy Code does not constitute a Prepetition Permitted Senior Lien, and such right is expressly subject to the DIP Liens (as defined herein) and the Prepetition Liens, including the Prepetition UST Liens. The Prepetition UST Liens are continuing liens and the Prepetition UST Collateral is and will continue to be encumbered by such liens.

K. Intercreditor Agreement. Pursuant to section 510 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Prepetition Intercreditor Agreement shall (i) remain in full force and effect, (ii) continue to govern the relative priorities, rights, and remedies of the Prepetition Secured Parties and the Prepetition UST Secured Parties (including the relative priorities, rights and remedies of such parties with respect to replacement liens, administrative expense claims and superpriority administrative expense claims or amounts payable in respect thereof), and (iii) not be deemed to be amended, altered, or modified by the terms of this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order or the Interim DIP Order unless expressly set forth herein or therein, respectively.

L. Interim DIP Order. Contemporaneous with the entry of this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order, the Court is entering the Interim DIP Order authorizing the Debtors to, among other things, incur postpetition debt, grant adequate protection liens and superpriority administrative claims to the Prepetition Secured Parties in connection with the incurrence of such debt, and access and utilize Available ABL Cash Collateral (as defined in the Interim DIP Order). This Interim UST Cash Collateral Order has been entered separately, but contemporaneously, with the Interim DIP Order, at the Prepetition UST Secured Parties' request to the Debtors for this separate and standalone Interim UST Cash Collateral Order. In the event of any inconsistency between the UST Cash Collateral Orders and the DIP Orders, the DIP Orders shall control.

Based upon the Motion, the foregoing findings and conclusions, and the overall record before the Court, and after due consideration, and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. Motion Granted. The Motion is granted on an interim basis on the terms and conditions set forth in this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order. All objections to the Interim UST Cash Collateral Order to the extent not withdrawn, waived, settled, or resolved are hereby overruled on the merits.

2. *Protection of the DIP Lenders' and Prepetition UST Secured Parties' Rights.*⁵

(a) Immediately upon delivery by the DIP Secured Parties to the Debtors of a Termination Notice or Carve-Out Trigger Notice, the Prepetition UST Secured Parties' consent to the Debtors' use of UST Cash Collateral shall be deemed automatically withdrawn and terminated.

(b) Immediately upon the occurrence of any of the below events (each, a "UST Cash Collateral Termination Event"), any such event being deemed an "Event of Default," the Prepetition UST Agent (at the direction of the Prepetition UST Secured Parties), on not less than three (3) business days' notice to the DIP Agent and the Remedies Notice Parties (as defined in the Interim DIP Order) (such three (3) business day period, the "Prepetition UST Remedies Notice Period"), and unless the Court orders otherwise (provided that during such period, the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee (if appointed), and/or any party in interest shall be entitled to seek an emergency hearing with the Court for the purpose of contesting whether, in fact, a UST Cash Collateral Termination Event has occurred and is continuing or to obtain non-consensual use of UST Cash Collateral (and, provided, further, that, if a request for such hearing is made prior to the end of the Prepetition UST Remedies Notice Period, then the Prepetition UST Remedies Notice Period shall be continued until the Court hears and rules with respect thereto) may terminate and/or revoke its and the Prepetition UST Secured Parties' consent to the Debtors' use of UST Cash Collateral (subject to the Carve-Out and related provisions, including Canadian Priority Charges) by delivering a termination notice (the "UST Cash Collateral Termination Notice") to the DIP Agent and the Remedies Notice Parties (as defined in the Interim DIP Order): (i) the filing of any motion or pleading by the Debtors, or the entry of an order on account of a motion filed by any other party, to stay, vacate, reverse, amend or modify the Interim UST Cash Collateral Order or Final UST Cash Collateral Order in a manner materially adverse to the Prepetition UST Secured Parties without the consent of the Prepetition UST Secured Parties; (ii) the entry of an order appointing a trustee, receiver or examiner with expanded powers with respect to any of the Debtors; (iii) the Debtors shall attempt to invalidate, reduce or otherwise impair the Prepetition UST Secured Obligations; (iv) the dismissal of any of the Chapter 11 Cases; (v) the effective date of any plan of reorganization; (vi) the conversion of any of the Chapter 11 Cases to a case under chapter 7; (vii) the Debtors' failure to timely satisfy any of the Milestones (as defined below) or otherwise materially comply with any of the terms of this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order; (viii) the Debtors' failure to materially comply with any of the terms in the Interim DIP Order in a manner that adversely affects the Prepetition UST Secured Parties; (ix) the Debtors' failure to maintain required insurance for the Prepetition UST Collateral; (x) the Debtors' failure to pay timely the UST Adequate Protection Fees and Expenses and the UST Adequate Protection Payments under this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order; (xi) the DIP Secured Parties and the DIP Loan Parties amend or modify the DIP Credit Agreement, or the DIP Secured Parties waive any rights held by such parties thereunder, in a manner that materially and adversely affects the Prepetition UST Secured Parties without having obtained the written consent of the Prepetition UST Secured Parties to do so; (xii) the Final UST Cash Collateral Order (in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the Prepetition UST Secured Parties) shall not have been entered by this Court within thirty (30) days of the Petition Date; (xiii) an Approved Budget shall be updated, supplemented, replaced, or otherwise modified in a manner not reasonably acceptable to the Prepetition UST Secured Parties; or (xiv) the Debtors make a payment or take an action that is not in material compliance with the Approved Budget that was approved and consented to by the Prepetition UST Secured Parties.

(c) Subject to the terms of the Prepetition Intercreditor Agreement, the Interim DIP Order, and the Carve-Out, following delivery of a Termination Notice, delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice, or an Event of Default (as defined below) and delivery of a UST Cash Collateral Termination Notice, but prior to exercising the remedies set forth in this sentence below or any other remedies (other than those set forth below in sub-paragraph (d)), the Prepetition UST Secured Parties shall be required to file a motion with the Court seeking emergency relief (the “UST Stay Relief Motion”) to be heard not less than three (3) business days’ notice to the Remedies Notice Parties (which may run concurrently with the Prepetition UST Agent Remedies Notice Period) for a further order of the Court fashioning any appropriate remedy, including modifying the automatic stay in the Chapter 11 Cases to permit the Prepetition UST Secured Parties to, subject in all respects to the Prepetition Intercreditor Agreement, the DIP Orders, and the Carve-Out and related provisions (including the Canadian Priority Charges): (a) freeze monies or balances in the Debtors’ accounts provided such monies constitute Prepetition UST Collateral; (b) immediately set-off any and all amounts in accounts maintained by the Debtors with the Prepetition UST Agent or the Prepetition UST Secured Parties against the UST Adequate Protection Obligations (provided such amounts shall not constitute Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral, Joint Priority Collateral, or the priority collateral of any Prepetition Secured Party other than a Prepetition UST Secured Party), (c) enforce any and all available rights against the Prepetition UST Collateral including, without limitation, foreclosing on all or any portion of such collateral, occupying the Debtors' premises, and selling or disposing of such collateral; and (d) take any other actions or exercise any other rights or remedies permitted under this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order or applicable law. If the Prepetition UST Secured Parties are permitted by the Court to take any enforcement action with respect to the Prepetition UST Collateral following the hearing on the UST Stay Relief Motion, the Debtors shall cooperate with the Prepetition UST Secured Parties in their efforts to enforce their security interest in the Prepetition UST Collateral, and shall not take or direct any entity to take any action designed or intended to hinder or restrict in any respect such Prepetition UST Secured Parties from enforcing their security interests in such collateral. Until such time that the UST Stay Relief Motion has been adjudicated by the Court, the Debtors may use the proceeds of the Prepetition UST Collateral (including UST Cash Collateral) to fund operations and other activities, actions, and payments, in each case in accordance with the Approved Budget, for the purpose of avoiding immediate and irreparable harm to the estates.

(d) No rights, protections or remedies of the Prepetition UST Secured Parties granted by this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order shall be limited, modified or impaired in any way by: (i) any actual or purported withdrawal of the consent to the Debtors' authority to continue to use UST Cash Collateral; (ii) any actual or purported termination of the Debtors' authority to continue to use UST Cash Collateral; (iii) the terms of any other order or stipulation related to the Debtors' continued use of UST Cash Collateral or the provision of adequate protection to any party; or (iv) the termination of the DIP Facility; provided, any inconsistency between this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order and the Interim DIP Order and/or the Prepetition Intercreditor Agreement shall be resolved by reference to the Interim DIP Order and/or the Prepetition Intercreditor Agreement, as applicable.

3. Limitation on Charging Expenses Against Collateral. Except to the extent of the Carve-Out and Canadian Priority Charges, no costs or expenses of administration of these Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases or any future proceeding that may result therefrom, including liquidation in bankruptcy or other proceeding under the Bankruptcy Code, shall be charged against or recovered from the Prepetition UST Collateral (including UST Cash Collateral) pursuant to section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or any similar principle of law, without the prior written consent of the Prepetition UST Agent, and no consent shall be implied from any action, inaction or acquiescence by any of the Prepetition UST Secured Parties, and nothing contained in this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order shall be deemed to be a consent by the Prepetition UST Secured Parties to any charge, lien, assessment or claims against the Prepetition UST Collateral under section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise. Further, subject to and effective upon entry of this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order, in no event shall the “equities of the case” exception under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code apply to the Prepetition UST Secured Parties.

4. No Marshaling. Effective upon entry of this Interim UST Cash Collateral Order, in no event shall the Prepetition UST Secured Parties or the Prepetition Secured Parties be subject to the equitable doctrine of “marshaling” or any similar doctrine with respect to the Prepetition UST Collateral or the Prepetition UST Secured Obligations, as applicable.
